

DEDICATION

This town report is dedicated to the memory of four Shelburne Citizens who passed away in 2007.

Patricia Margaret Hudnall

Patricia Margaret Hudnall, a resident of Shelburne for more than 24 years, passed away April 20, 2007 at the age of 75. Patricia was the daughter of Michael & Concetta Luciano. She grew up in Summit, New Jersey with her 5 siblings. In 1951 she met Joe, married and devoted herself to raising 3 children. During this time they traveled and lived in Texas, Georgia, Maryland and New Jersey while Joe served 20 years in the United States Army. After retiring from the service and a few other careers they moved and settled in Shelburne near Patricia's other siblings, Joe and Marge Bolash, Janet Luciano, Bill & Bobbie Weichert and Nephew Rob and Monique Bolash.

Patricia was an active member of the Holy Family Parish of Gorham, involved by dedicating many hours to the care and preservation of the church. She served as Shelburne Town Treasurer for over 5 years. Patricia always enjoyed the Shelburne Neighbors Group contributing her time and energy endlessly. Patricia will be remembered fondly by all of her nieces, nephews, friends and family for her compassion for life, her gift of homemade blankets, scarves and Christmas stockings. Patricia thoroughly enjoyed her grandchildren, helping raise them and attending their sporting events and school events.

Nancy C. Philbrook

Nancy C. Philbrook, a lifelong resident of Shelburne, passed away July 5, 2007 at the age of 85. She was the daughter of Lawrence and Helen (Day) Philbrook.

She was a graduate of Gould Academy and the University of Maine at Orono where she was a member of AOPi Sorority and an All Maine Woman. She was a member of the Gorham Congregational Church, UCC and a 65-year member of the Winthrop Grange. Nancy was employed as a research chemist for the Brown Co and was one of the first women hired into this type of position. She was part owner of the Philbrook Farm Inn where she spent many years cooking wonderful things for her guests and neighbors. She was a member of the first Shelburne Planning Board and served as secretary of the Board, past president of the Gorham Women's Club and a Supervisor of the Checklist for 48 years.

She dispensed love and compassion to family, friends and neighbors with as much care as she baked her cakes, pies AND donuts. Nancy had offered her home to various groups for meetings and fund-raising events. She had a life-long love for horses and gave riding lessons. She will be missed by her sister Connie Leger, her niece Ann Leger and her nephew Larry Leger as well as her many cousins and friends.

Marilyn J. Huff

Marilyn J. Huff, a lifelong resident of the Shelburne- Gorham area, passed away on September 9, 2007 at the age of 67. She was the daughter of Gordon and Dorothy (Milligan) Evans.

She had been employed by Converse Rubber Company, Saladino's Restaurant and recently retired from Shaw's Supermarket. She was a member of the Winthrop Grange.

She will be missed by her husband Alan, her daughter Allyson, her grandchildren Serena and Andrew, sister Vera-Ellen, her brother Gordon (Jim) and her friends.

Robert W. Feugill

Robert W. Feugill passed away at his home in Shelburne on December 1, 2007 at the age of 60. He married Carol Clamp and had resided in Shelburne since 1983.

Bob was a veteran of the U. S. Air Force and a member of the Shelburne Fire Department. Following his retirement from security at the Mount Washington Hotel he formed a company with his wife Carol called Kaos and Kornfusion. Their motto was Anything, Anywhere, Anytime
